Mrs. Aiqa has been serving as an archivist at the National Archives of Malaysia (NAM) since 2018, and she has proven to be an asset to the institution. She graduated from MARA University of Technology (UiTM) in Malaysia with a Bachelor's degree in Records and Document Management (Hons.) and a Master of Science in Information System Management. In her undergraduate and graduate studies, Mrs. Aiqa demonstrated exceptional academic performance, and her hard work culminated in four published papers, co-authored with other scholars. These papers mainly focused on the management of electronic records related to Malaysian courts, a topic that is of great importance in today's digital age. Mrs. Aiqa's knowledge and expertise in the field of information management are impressive, and her contribution to NAM has been invaluable. She is currently working in the Digital Archives Section, where she is responsible for a range of tasks, including the preservation and digitization of historical documents.
