

BIOGRAPHY

Associate Professor Dr Azman Mat Isa has 25 years' experience in academic. Attached to the School on Information Science, College of Computing, Informatics and Media, Universiti Teknologi MARA (UiTM), Malaysia. He is actively involved in research and consultancy as well as training and development programs on information governance, records management, leadership and strategic planning. At international level, he is an active member of International Committee on Standard of Information Governance. At national level, he is a member of National Committee on ISO Records Management; and national committee on Information Science Standard. He was a visiting professor at Universitas Brawijaya, Indonesia. He is frequently invited as speaker at international and local conferences such as 3rd Annual International Conference on Business and Public Administration 2020 Indonesia, International Federation of Library Association General Conference and Assembly (IFLA) 2018; UNESCO International Symposium on Preservation and Access 2017.

He assumed various management positions namely, Director of Strategic Communication to the Vice Chancellor; Director, Institute of Students Leadership; Fellow at Institute of Student Leadership; Deputy Dean (Student Affairs) and Program Head.

Dr Azman has a mixed academic background with PhD in Humanities Computing from Humanities Advanced Technology & Information Institute, University of Glasgow, UK, MA in Electronic Communication & Publishing from University College London, UK; Post Graduate Diploma in Library Science from UiTM; and BSc (Hons.) (Mathematics) from Universiti Putra Malaysia.