

Biography

Lastria Nurtanzila

My name is Lastria Nurtanzila. I am a lecturer at Archives and Record Management Study Program, Universitas Gadjah Mada, Indonesia. As a lecturer, I must teach, do research, and do community service. I have always been interested in management and organizations, so I am studying Management and Public Policy as my Ph.D. Aside from teaching, I also do research. This year, the theme of my research is Information Governance. My research interest is electronic document management for government institutions, office administration, and information government.

Faizatush Sholikhah

My name is Faizatush Sholikhah. I am a lecturer at Archives and Record Management Study Program, Universitas Gadjah Mada, Indonesia. In this archives field, my expertise is in archival human resources, archival standardization policies, and history. I teach courses on archival services, management of personal records, and oral history. As a lecturer, I become a facilitator in guiding students to understand archives theoretically and practically so that they are ready to become archivists and record managers when they graduate.
